Whispering is an art. Here voice is dropped. It is a mode of utterance. It is hearsay having unknown origin. It is a brief mention. All cannot whisper. One should learn its technique and way of representation and its proper and timely use. One must know both cause and effect of whisper. A novice whispers when he/she should speak loud and shouts when he/she should really whisper thus loses both ways rendering the entire project quite frustrated. A corrupted soul is guided by head, but an innocent soul is guided by heart. Emotion guides an innocent soul. But emotion misguides more than to guide. Thus a corrupted soul whispers seldom an innocent eloquent one.

INTRODUCTION

Creative writing does not inform rather reveals. So it bears no reference. The present article is an outcome of creative writing meant for lay readers. As such free style is the methodology adopted so that pleasure of reading can be enjoyed by the common mass. As you know well that Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal essayist, wrote many essays namely Of Love, Of Friendship, Of Ambition, Of Studies, etc. The myriad-minded genius rightly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be the themes of essays one can write. But little has been done, in this regard since his death, in order to finish his unfinished monumental works. In fact Bacon's way of presentation i.e., his unique individual style kindled the imagination already in me and encouraged me as well to write essays, in the light of creative writing, thus to get relief through Catharsis.

OF WHISPERING

Whisper means to speak or say something quietly, using only one's breathe, so that only the people closest to one can hear. It is to speak very softly without vibration of the vocal cords. It is to talk or say in a barely audible tone or in a secret or confidential way. It is to speak privately or conspiratorially. It is a hint or suggestion. It is mysterious. Also it gives birth to mystery. It is as if rumor. It is a means of secret communication. But the paradox is that it spreads very fast as if it has been told loudly. Sometimes it is even faster than wind.

Whisper is widely used by all in every sphere of life. Its use is more malafide than bonafide in nature. An honest person whispers for a noble cause. A doctor whispers to intimate serious condition of a patient. A dishonest person whispers to serve his evil purposes. Rumor gives birth to whisper or whisper gives birth to rumor. A liar whisperer is very dangerous. He not only poisons relation but vitiates the environment as well. As such he is either dangerously brilliant or brilliantly dangerous or both simultaneously.

Whispering is an art. Here voice is dropped. It is a mode of utterance. It is hearsay having unknown origin. It is a brief mention. All cannot whisper. One should learn its technique and way of representation and its proper and timely use. One must know both cause and effect of whisper. A novice whispers when he/she should speak loud and shouts when he/she should really whisper thus loses both ways rendering the entire project quite frustrated. A corrupted soul is guided by head, but an innocent soul is guided by heart.

Emotion guides an innocent soul. But emotion misguides more than to guide. Thus a corrupted soul whispers seldom an innocent eloquent one.

If a person sees someone, gazing at him, speaking in whispers and whispers are exchanged then he becomes suspicious. If he thinks that the matter involves his interest then the suspicion becomes violent. In any matter if there is controversy among the members of any party then it is whispered that the party is going to be split over the issue.

The whisper of splitting is accelerated if the party loses the power.

Whispering gallery is a gallery especially under a dome with acoustic properties such that a whisper may be heard round its entire circumstance. It is so constructed that a whisper or light sound is carried to an unusual distance.

A secret informer whispers. Whisper campaigning is akin to rumour and moves as fast as storm. This campaigning is one kind of attack. It is organized unpleasant rumors by word of mouth about somebody intended to damage their reputation and deliberately passed from person to person. It is an unethical political strategy to defame a political candidate, group, cause, etc. It is an endless dirty game that ignites political unrest that affects the society at large. The king knows that the courtiers whisper. So he either punishes or offers prizes to his followers. Right decision raises him upward and wrong decision causes his utter downfall.

Cowards whisper but bold voice speaks loudly. But whispering is done to overcome repercussion. Whisper is powerful more than shouting. It is an avenue to exchange love.

As such lovers smile more, than laughter and whisper always than shouting like an ox.

They beckon and enjoy talkative silence during intimacy.

Whisper is alias and akin to a piece of gossip or plotting. It wastes valuable time. It is rude to whisper. Since it is unethical to whisper a gentleman seldom whispers. But it is an enjoyable event. People from all walks of life enjoy it more or less. A lover whispers to meet her at night. The fiancé leans over and whispers something in her ear. She whispers that she is afraid. A tender soul speaks in whisper. Her voice drops to a whisper. If an employee hears whispers that the firm is likely to go bankrupt, he suffers from terrible fear.

Stage whispers are words spoken quietly but distinctly by an actor, as if no one on stage can hear but intended to be heard by the audience. It is whispered remark meant for climax of a drama. Through monologue or soliloquy a protagonist manifests his talent.

Whisper helps dramatis personae to disclose their true identities. Whispering is alias of side talk of the students during class or mass in a public gathering.

Inattentive students whisper in the class room. This simply interrupts the flow of lecture of the teacher. Also it disturbs attention of both teacher and good students. These unruly students should be treated carefully. Also proper counseling is a must to track these detracted students. If proper care is not taken for these tender minds then in future these grown up hardened soul will create problem gossiping during important discussion. This phenomenon defames both these persons and their school as well. In fact these students whisper since to them school life is quite boring and stereotyped period. They whisper thereby waste much precious time of human life. These unfortunate prodigal students are so callous that they can hardly think that a single moment of student life can never be compensated by thousand moments of future. This short period of school life determines the Fate and thereby rise and downfall of any person in question. Any wrong decision renders them dependent permanently causing lifelong suffering. Misfortune dogs them wherever they go. This misfortune affects their parents more severely. They say children may be prize or punishment to the parents. The parents know not whether they will be rewarded or punished. In this regard they are quite undone. They can simply try. The rest is Almighty's whim. This is the fault of total education system of an undeveloped nation.

They did not find any interest during school life and even at this grown up stage as well due to inertia. People whisper regarding their pathetic plight lest whisper hurts them.

Dry leaves rustle. Wind blows. Spring and rivulet murmur. Poets compare these soft sounds with whisper. All these are melodious voice of nature. A gentle wind whispers among the branches overhead. Only a romantic ear can hear it. The whisper of the leaves in the moonlit forest renders an emotional heart lunatic. He leaves home alone, walks many a weary mile in the midst of dense forest even at dead of night and becomes vagabond. His bohemian whimsicality isolates him far from the madding crowd. Nobody laughs for him. Rather everybody laughs at him. But nature laughs for him. Like a mother nature offers him shelter in her lap. Nature's affection acts as a balm to the bruised heart.

His tired nerves restore vitality again. He is not alone when he is alone. He is less lonely with nature. He hears nature to whisper. He gazes at the unobstructed view of the galaxies that whisper with each other and beckon him.

The enchanted heart becomes spell bound gazing the unveiled beauty of the virgin nature.

Talkative silence of the vast universe stops his breathing. He feels that the eternity whispers with the Almighty regarding chronicles of all and entire events as well of His creation in a humble mood. He notices the milky ways to speak in whispers. He observes there the angels, millions of light years away from this mundane existence, to whisper the sorrows and sufferings of this creation and mourn. Drops of divine tears roll down their pale cheeks for the ailing humanity. And the world, as if, is moistened with those sacred tears as transformed into holy dew drops.
